BIO

2016 Blues Music Award (BMA) Winner and two-time 2020 BMA nominee Billy Price first attracted national attention during his three-year association with guitarist Roy Buchanan. Price is the vocalist on two of Buchanan's LPs, That's What I'm Here For and Live Stock. Since then, with the Keystone Rhythm Band, the Billy Price Band, and solo projects, Billy Price has recorded and released a total of 17 albums, CDs, and DVDs.

Price's album This Time for Real, with the late Chicago soul singer Otis Clay, received a 2016 Blues Music Award in the category of Best Soul Blues Album of 2015. His 2018 album Reckoning, produced by Kid Andersen at Greaseland Studios for Vizztone, was nominated for a 2019 Blues Music Award in the category of Best Soul Blues Album of 2018. His latest album Dog Eat Dog, also produced by Andersen, was released on Gulf Coast Records in August, 2019 and nominated for a 2020 BMA for Best Soul Blues Album of 2019. He was also nominated for a 2020 BMA for Best Male Soul Blues Artist.

KUDOS

"One of the best 'modern blues' releases I have heard in a while."

- Norman Darwen, Blues & Rhythm

"Dog Eat Dog is a classic--beautifully recorded and performed. One of the best releases of the year."

- Stephen A. King, Living Blues

"Billy Price and Kid Andersen...have created a celebration of classic American soul. But it's also an elevation, expanding and revitalizing a genre that --as evidenced here--continues to inspire."

- Terry Abrahamson, Blues Music Magazine

"I've heard some really good albums this year, in many genres and forms, but this is classic soul, played with an awesome sense of the music and way out there ahead of most. Bloody wonderful."

- Andy Snipper, Blues Matters
